Friday 23th
November 2018

We have received 2356 votes for our Miles4Smiles project. Aviva will announce the finalists on 27th November, so fingers crossed!

Thank you to the PTFA for organising.

Christmas card making at
Adlington Library

3rd December 2018

3pm to 6pm

Why not go along to Adlington library where children and adults can make and decorate Christmas Cards. All materials will be provided. These cards will then be taken to the residents of Grove House Nursing Home.

This half term's school value:

COURAGE

Non uniform days

The next two Fridays are non uniforms days to help us get ready for our Christmas fair.

Friday 30th November – chocolate donation for the chocolate wheel

Friday 7th December – bottle donation for the wine wheel.

Thank you for your continued support

Bags 2 School

We do hope you have been busy sorting through your cupboards and filling the bag that was sent out last week.

If you require more bags then they are available from the school office or you can use any other bag.

Please bring your bag (or bags!) to school before Tuesday 27th November and help us have a good collection. There is a treat available for the class that return the most bags!

Newsletter news

As we are all becoming more eco friendly, this will be the last paper copy of our newsletter. After this week it will be available to view on our school website (www.andertonprimaryschool.co.uk/newsletter) and on our Facebook Page (Anderton Primary School).

Should you require a paper copy, please call into the school office. Thank you.
